

OPPORTUNITIES

Director of Finance

Self-Help Enterprises, a nonprofit housing and community development organization, has an opening for a director of finance. Located in Visalia, the position is responsible for all financial matters and will oversee compliance for government (federal and state) contracts and private grants; cash, investment and asset management; financing strategies and activities; and banking relationships. CPA and relevant experience required.

For more information, visit www.selfhelpenterprises.org.