

Thank you CPA-PAC Contributors!

Political action plays a crucial role in CalCPAs ongoing efforts to protect and enhance our profession.

Our success depends heavily on a Legislature that understands the importance of CPAs and our profession—which is why CPA-PAC works so hard to elect candidates, from both sides of the aisle, who appreciate the essential services we provide.

Thank you to all CPA-PAC contributors—especially the following individuals and firms—who have raised the bar in raising contributions for 2006.

There's strength in numbers—especially in politics.
