Credible is a simple, free service that can help CalCPA members and their families save money by comparing their options to refinance student loans. With Credible, student debt holders can submit a single form and receive offers to refinance both federal and private student loans from multiple lenders.

Student loan refinance rates can be significantly lower than your initial student loan rates, with rates below 2% (as of June 1, 2015)! Lowering your interest rate can save you thousands in the long run. The average CPA that refinances with Credible saves over $8,000, and it only takes 30 seconds to get a free savings estimate.

You can also check out the Credible CPA page to learn more about student loan refinance and student loan consolidation. If you have further questions, you can contact Credible's support team directly at (415) 801-0482 or support@credible.com.
